The Board held a meet and confer session with County Attorney Paul Kiltinen on his 2010 salary request.

Meet and Confer
Session on County
Attorney's Salary for 2010

The County Attorney informed the Board that in the past he has typically requested a similar salary increase to what the unions were asking for, however, due to the current budget situation he would be requesting a 0% salary increase for 2010.

Mr. Kiltinen reported that things are going good in his office.

The County Attorney briefly discussed changes that have taken place in his office that require more interaction with the Human Services staff and reported that he felt his office was working well with the Human Services staff.

The Board stated that they appreciated the work the Mr. Kiltinen does and his willingness to take a 0% salary increase for 2010.

Tax Services Director Rose Culbertson provided the Board with a September financial report.

September Financial Report

The Finance Director will be asked to go through the report and elaborate further on the funds that are way off.

The Board thanked Ms. Culbertson for the update.

The Chair adjourned the meeting at 9:23 a.m. CDT.
